

BRAVE Webinar Activities

- What's the Problem? Write down the situations that you believe make your dog or your client's dogs feel unsafe and/or uncomfortable.

- Let's Commit! On a scale of 1 to 10 (with 10 being very willing), circle how willing are you to commit to solving the problem and helping your dog feel more BRAVE?

Write any thoughts or reflections you have below about becoming a BRAVE team.

- Let's Plan! Reflect on the situations you outlined above and write down how you could listen and advocate for your dog via two-way conversations with your dog.

- Go with Confidence! On a scale of 1 to 10 (with 10 being very confident), circle how confident you are that you can be a part of a BRAVE team with your dog and have two-way conversations.

- Let's Do It! Challenge: Have a Two-Way Conversation

Step 1: Listen to your dog

Observing dog body language requires looking at the dog's entire body (head, body, tail, and context) to understand the whole picture.

Step 2: Advocate for your dog

Once you've listened to your dog via dog body language, you can decide what the most appropriate, empathetic response might be. BRAVE teams work to do the following:

Teach

- Teach what you want

Reinforce

- Reinforce what you like

Re-direct

- Re-direct what you don't
